

Dear Pre-K Parents,

Very soon your little ones will be starting a new adventure in Pre-K at Howick School! We know this can be an exciting, scary and nerve-wracking time all at once, so in hopes to alleviate some of that stress, here is some information about our Pre-K progressive entry this school year;

- On August 29th, when the rest of the school has their Welcome back day, you will have a chance to sign up for your child’s hot lunch, breakfast program and all the other bells and whistles as well but FIRST, you will have activities from 9:30 to 11:30 with both teachers and attendants. Both groups will be mixed together for fun learning stations.
- On August 30th and August 31st, when the rest of the grades start school, Pre-K will have individual interviews in your child’s classroom between the family and teachers to meet and/or get better acquainted, handout all necessary materials (agendas, emergency contact forms, etc), drop off student supplies (see Pre-K supply list on our website: www.howick.nfsb.qc.ca) and for your child to have a chance to explore his/her classroom. This will also give you the chance to speak to us personally about your child and tell us anything that you feel we should know.

- From September 4th-11th, we will be splitting the class into two groups of 8 children (Group A and Group B). These smaller groups will make it easier for the children to figure out how school works and learn the new routines (arrival on bus, bathrooms, hooks, outdoor play, lunchtime, etc). Group A will have school on September 4, 6 and 10 and Group B will have school on September 5, 7 and 11. As of Wednesday, September 12th, all students will start school together!
